

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Carly Wendt
Marketing & Public Relations Coordinator
Nebraska Children's Home Society Foundation
402.451.0787 – office 402.898.7755 – fax
cwendt@nchsfoundation.org

“BABES IN TOYLAND” HOLIDAY FASHION SHOW RAISES $10,000

December 13, 2005 – Over 150 people kicked off the holidays by attending “Babes in Toyland,” the Nebraska Children’s Home Family Guild holiday fashion show, luncheon and silent auction held on Saturday, December 3, 2005 at Nebraska Children’s Home Society – Durham Center. Modeling the Younkers fashions were primarily children and families who are touched by adoption through Nebraska Children’s Home or have benefited from their services. Honorary Chairmen for this event were Dr. David & Angela Michaels, adoptive parents through Nebraska Children’s Home. Event Chairpersons were Deb Slattery and Susan Hancock.

The “Babes in Toyland” holiday fashion show raised over $10,000 for Nebraska Children’s Home Society Foundation. This organization supports the programs of Nebraska Children’s Home, which include statewide adoption services for birth parents, adoptive couples and adoptees, unplanned pregnancy services, foster care for primarily medically fragile children and specialized child care services. More information on Nebraska Children’s Home is available online at www.nchs.org.

###