

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Carly Wendt
Marketing & Public Relations Coordinator
Nebraska Children's Home Society Foundation
402.451.0787 – office 402.898.7755 – fax
cwendt@nchsfoundation.org

JOIN NEBRASKA CHILDREN'S HOME AT THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY

Nebraska Children's Home celebrates their annual "Weaving Families Together" fundraiser with chocolate, Wonka bars and the UNL Scarlet & Cream Singers.

February 16, 2006 - Nebraska Children's Home Society (NCHS) Foundation is hosting its 4th Annual "Weaving Families Together" Celebration with a Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory Theme on Friday, March 31st, 2006 at the Interstate Holiday Inn, 7838 South Hwy 281 in Grand Island, NE. The evening begins at 6:00 p.m. for social hour and auction viewing. Dinner will be provided at 6:30 p.m. along with the musical entertainment of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Scarlet & Cream Singers.

Tickets to the event are $35 for adults and $15 for children, 12 & under. Bidding on auction items and the highly anticipated Golden Ticket Drawing will also be available for patrons. For questions, please contact JoDee Klinker, NCHS Foundation Special Events & Volunteer Coordinator, at 1-888-345-1374 or jklinker@nchsfoundation.org.

All proceeds from this event go to Nebraska Children's Home Society Foundation, which provides funds for the programs and services of Nebraska Children's Home Society. Since 1893, the Nebraska Children's Home Society has been providing loving and nurturing homes for over 20,000 of Nebraska's children. The Grand Island office is located at 908 No. Howard Ave, Suite 107. Nebraska Children's Home Society continues its dedication to providing statewide adoption services, lifelong education and support services for birth parents and anyone dealing with an unplanned pregnancy, foster care for medically fragile children and specialized child care programs.

For more information on NCHS, visit online at www.nchs.org or contact Sheri Jelinek, adoption caseworker in the Grand Island office, at (308) 381-0568 or sjelinek@nchs.org.

###